

MIDWEST REVUE ROYALE SALE REPORT

MAY 11, 2024 | WOOSTER, OHIO | 85 LOTS AVG. $4193 | 33 EMBRYOS AVG. $908

The 2024 Edition of the Royale resulted in an average of $4193 on 85 cattle lots sold. There were 33 embryos from a variety of donors that averaged $908.

A breakfast offering started the activities sale morning sponsored by Balchem Animal Health and Nutrition.

Buyers from Canada and 15 states from California to New Jersey were on hand or represented online through Cowbuyer. Modern Associates managed the event with Adam Fraley as the auctioneer and Wayne Sliker as boxman. The talented group taking bids included Brian Garrison, Lee Barber, Steve Andrews, Joe Sparrow, Bryan Champluvier and Jake Hushon. Gina Fraley clerked the event with Dr. Brad Garrison as the official veterinarian. Animals were expertly presented in the ring by Heather Yoder, Jacoby Gilbert, Landree Fraley, Liz Howman & Hannah Myers.

The high-seller pictured is Edge View N Sylvia, purchased for $25,000 by a trio of juniors including Jax Ayars, Ohio and Kelly Jo Manion and Hadleigh Jones of Kentucky. This extra fancy fall calf is a Norwin out of Cutting Edge P Sherry 2E94 that was consigned by Elite Dairy II of Copake, New York.
