

THE MIDWEST REVUE – 2018 EDITION

50 Head averaged $3498 to 11 States

High Seller at $16,500 - Blessing Mort Garbro O Gaby ET, a Big Time Fall calf pictured with consignors Brian Garrison and Steve Blessing on the left with contender Dakota Fraley. Jenna Hoffman is holding Gaby with Ken Main - representing the buyers - Elite Dairy to the right with Lee Barber of the sales force. In the box: Wayne Sliker, sales manager along with Tim Eiting and Darrell Worden, auctioneers.

Once again, The Revue was conducted during the Spring Dairy Expo at the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus, Ohio. A sizeable crowd was on hand to appreciate a high quality offering that featured a special lineup of full pedigreed heifers with a smaller number of promising young cows.

Topping the event at $16,500 was Blessing Mort Garbro O Gaby ET, an extra fancy fall calf sired by Braiden out of Top Acres Pilot Groovy ET, a "3E" All American and former Madison Reserve Grand Champion. Gaby was provided by Blessing Farms of Fort Wayne, IN along with their partners Garrison Brothers, Rex Mort and Bob Osborn. She is now part of the Elite Dairy show string as she was purchased by Ken Main and Peter Vail of Copake, NY. Dakota Fraley, Muncy, PA was the contender on this outstanding heifer.

Sun-Made Elite Nova ET was next in line on the high selling list at $13,000 and was taken by John & Bonnie Ayars and Kenny Manion, Mechanicsburg, OH. Her baby calf brought an additional $2750 going to Regan Shockey, Ravenswood, WV. Nova, a fancy uddered Supreme from the Nora Family, and her calf were consigned by Top Acres, St. Paris, OH.

Also in 5 figures, Blessing Garbro F Porsha ET sold for $10,000 to Amy Hughes & Adyan Watts, Brinkhaven, OH. This sporty Winning Formula winter calf was consigned by Blessing Farms & Garbro Swiss and features 7 "Ex" dams from the Priscilla Family.

The Revue was again managed by Modern Associates, St. Paris, OH. Tim Eiting and Darrell Worden shared auctioneer duties with Wayne E. Sliker handling pedigrees and announcements as the boxman. Lee Barber and Brian Garrison worked the ring and the phones along with Cowbuyer.com providing online viewing and bidding.

Connie Sliker and Deb Hoffman clerked with Dale Bendig and Associates providing cattle preparation. A talented group of young ladies presented cattle thru the ring including Jenna Hoffman, Lauren L'Amoreau, Sarah Lehner, Madelyn Topp, Kinley Topp and Carrie Rhoades.

Additional High Sellers

La Rainbow Sweet Cheers ET $6,500

Buyer: Benjamin Lammers, Botkins, OH
Seller: La Rainbow Farm, New Knoxville, OH

Blessing Biver Felecia $6,100

Buyer: Ken Main and Peter Vail, Copake, NY
Seller: Blessing Farms, Fort Wayne, IN

Top Acres HP Winella ET $5,100

Buyers: Blessing Farms & Garrison Bros., Fort Wayne, IN
Sellers: Top Acres & Hillpoint Partners, St. Paris, OH

North Lanes CP Cinema $4,400

Buyer: Richard Sharer, Laceyville, PA
Seller: Chelsea Skidmore, Union City, OH

Round Hill Supreme Windy ET $4,300

Buyer: Ken Main & Peter Vail, Copake, NY
Seller: Cindy Warner, Frederick, MD

Arethusa WF Nautical $4,250

Buyer: Eric Lang, Brooklyn, IA
Seller: Arethusa Farm, Litchfield, CT

Second High Seller at $13,000 - Sun-Made Elite Nova. Left to right: John and Bonnie Ayars, buyers; Jenna Hoffman, leadsman; Brian Garrison and Lee Barber, sale crew. In the box: Wayne Sliker, consignor, sales manager and pedigrees; Tim Eiting and Darrell Worden, auctioneers.

Third High Seller at $10,000 - Blessing Garbro F Porsha ET. Left to right: Steve Watts representing the buyers Amy Hughes and Adyan Watts; Kinley Topp, leadsman; Brian Garrison, representing the consignors and sale crew member, and Lee Barber, sale crew. In the box: Wayne Sliker, sales manager and pedigrees; Tim Eiting and Darrell Worden, auctioneers.